Whistle-Blowing Policy and Procedure

1. Purpose

- 1.1. To set out the Board of Trustees's policy and procedure for dealing with concerns raised by employees which relate to suspected wrongdoing or dangers at work (see paragraph 3). Allegations of child abuse against teachers and other staff and volunteers is be dealt with in accordance with Keeping Children Safe in Education statutory guidance for schools and colleges.

2. Background

- 2.1. As employees are often the first to realise that there may be something wrong within the school, it is important that they feel able to express their concerns without fear of harassment or victimisation. Otherwise they may find it easier to ignore the concern rather than report it. The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 recognises this fact and is designed to protect employees, who make certain disclosures of information in 'the public interest', from detriment and/or dismissal. This policy builds on the provisions of the Act.
- 2.2. The Board of Trustees is committed to the highest possible standard of operation, probity and accountability. In line with that commitment, employees, officers, consultants, contractors, volunteers, casual workers and agency workers with serious concerns are encouraged to come forward and voice those concerns. This policy document makes it clear that employees can do so without fear of reprisals; it is intended to encourage and enable employees to raise serious concerns within the school rather than overlooking a problem or alerting anyone external to the school.
- 2.3. This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and it may be amended at any time.

3. Aims of the Policy

- 3.1. This policy aims to:
 - provide avenues for employees to raise concerns internally as a matter of course, and receive feedback on any action taken;
 - provide for matters to be dealt with quickly and appropriately; and ensure that concerns are taken seriously and treated consistently and fairly;
 - reassure employees that they will be protected from reprisals or victimisation for whistle-blowing where they have a genuine concern;
 - allow employees to take the matter further if they are dissatisfied with the Board of Trustees's response.

- 3.2. A whistleblower is a person who raises a genuine concern relating to the matters below. If employees have any genuine concerns related to suspected wrongdoing or danger affecting any of our activities (a whistleblowing concern) s/he should report it under this policy. Whistleblowing is the disclosure of information which relates to suspected wrongdoing or dangers at work. This may include:
- (a) criminal activity;
 - (b) child protection and/or safeguarding concerns
 - (c) miscarriages of justice;
 - (d) danger to health and safety;
 - (e) damage to the environment;
 - (f) failure to comply with any legal or professional obligation or regulatory requirements;
 - (g) bribery;
 - (h) financial fraud or mismanagement;
 - (i) negligence;
 - (j) breach of our internal policies and procedures;
 - (k) conduct likely to damage our reputation;
 - (l) unauthorised disclosure of confidential information;
 - (m) public examination fraud;
 - (n) the deliberate concealment of any of the above matters.
- 3.3. Before initiating the procedure employees should consider the following:
- the responsibility for expressing concerns about unacceptable practice or behaviour rests with all employees;
 - employees should use line manager or team meetings and other opportunities to raise questions and seek clarification on issues which are of day-to-day concern;
 - whilst it can be difficult to raise concerns about the practice or behaviour of a colleague, employees must act to prevent an escalation of the problem and to prevent themselves being potentially implicated.
- 3.4. This policy should not be used for complaints about an employee's personal circumstances, such as the way s/he has been treated at work. In these cases an employee should use the school's Grievance Procedure (or anti-harassment and bullying policy as appropriate); if the matter relates to salary, the salary review procedures documented in the school's pay policy.
- 3.5. If you are uncertain whether something is within the scope of this policy, you should seek advice from the Executive Headteacher.

4. Safeguards

4.1. Harassment or Victimisation

- 4.1.1. The Board of Trustees recognises that the decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make, not least because of the fear of reprisal from those responsible for the malpractice. The Board of Trustees will not tolerate harassment or victimisation and will take action to protect employees when they have a genuine concern.

- 4.1.2. This does not mean that if an employee is already the subject of internal procedures such as disciplinary or redundancy, that those procedures will be halted as a result of that employee raising a concern under the whistleblowing policy.
- 4.1.3. Where your concern is regarding our safeguarding practices, and you feel unable to raise it internally or have concerns about the way your concern is being handled by us, you can contact the NSPCC whistleblowing advice line on 0800 028 0285 – 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM, Monday to Friday or email: help@nspcc.org.uk. Alternatively, you can write to: National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC), Weston House, 42 Curtain Road, London EC2A 3HH.
- 4.1.4. Whistleblowing concerns usually relate to the conduct of Trust Staff, but they may sometimes relate to the actions of a third party, such as a service provider. In some circumstances, the law will protect you if you raise the matter with the third party. However, you are encouraged to report such concerns internally first. You should contact one of the other individuals set out above for guidance.
- 4.1.5. Staff must not suffer any detrimental treatment as a result of raising a concern. Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats, or other unfavourable treatment connected with raising a concern. If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform the Headteacher immediately. If the matter is not remedied to your satisfaction, you should raise it formally using our Grievance Policy and Procedure.
- 4.1.6. No member of staff must threaten or retaliate against an individual who has raised a concern in any way. We will not tolerate any such harassment or victimisation, and anyone involved in such conduct will be subject to disciplinary action.

4.2. Confidentiality

- 4.2.1. We hope that staff will feel able to voice whistleblowing concerns openly under this policy. The Board of Trustees will make every effort to protect an employee's identity if confidentiality is requested.
- 4.2.2. As indicated above, identity will be protected as far as possible, but should the investigation into the concern require the employee to be named as the source of the information, that this will be discussed with the employee before their name is disclosed.

4.3. Anonymous Allegations

- 4.3.1. Employees are encouraged to put their name to an allegation. Proper investigation may be more difficult or impossible if we cannot obtain further information and it is also more difficult to establish whether allegations are credible. Anonymous allegations will be considered at the discretion of the Board of Trustees. In exercising the discretion, the factors to be taken into account would include:

- the seriousness of the issues raised;
- the credibility of the concern; and
- the likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources.

4.4. Untrue Allegations

4.4.1. If an employee makes an allegation where s/he has a genuine concern, but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against that employee. If, however, we conclude that an employee has made malicious or vexatious allegations, or with a view to personal gain, disciplinary action may be taken against that employee.

4.5. Unfounded Allegations

4.5.1. Following investigation, allegations may be confirmed as unfounded. This outcome will be notified to the employee who raised the concern, who will be informed that the Board of Trustees deems the matter to be concluded and that it should not be raised again unless new evidence becomes available.

4.6. Support to Employees

4.6.1. It is recognised that raising concerns can be difficult and stressful. Advice and support will be made available as appropriate, to both the employee(s) raising the concerns and any employee(s) subject to investigation.

5. How to raise a Concern

- 5.1. As a first step, an employee should normally raise concerns with their immediate manager or their manager's superior. This depends, however, on the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues and who is involved. For example, if an employee believes that their immediate manager or their manager's superior is involved, s/he should approach the Executive Headteacher or Chair of Trustees. An employee (including the Executive Headteacher and members of the leadership team) can by-pass the direct management line and the Board of Trustees if s/he feels the overall management and Board of Trustees of a school is engaged in an improper course of action. In this case please refer to section 7 below.
- 5.2. Concerns are better raised in writing. The employee should set out the background and history of the concerns, giving names, dates and places where possible, and the reasons why s/he is particularly concerned about the situation. If an employee does not feel able to put the concern in writing, s/he should telephone or meet the appropriate person. It is important that, however the concern is raised, the employee makes it clear that s/he is raising the issue via the whistle-blowing procedure.
- 5.3. The earlier an employee expresses the concern, the easier it is to take action.
- 5.4. Although an employee is not expected to prove the truth of an allegation, s/he will need to demonstrate to the person contacted that there are sufficient grounds for the concern.
- 5.5. In some instances it may be appropriate for an employee to ask the trade union to raise a matter on the employee's behalf.
- 5.6. At each meeting under this policy the employee may bring a colleague or trade union representative. The companion must respect the confidentiality of the disclosure and any subsequent investigation.

6. The Role of Executive Senior leadership team

- 6.1. A member of the Executive senior leadership team may be informed by an employee about concern(s) and that s/he is "blowing the whistle" within the procedure in person; or in writing or over the phone.
- 6.2. The Executive Senior Leader (Exec SLT) should respond immediately by arranging to meet with the employee to discuss the concern(s) as soon as possible.
- 6.3. Stage One:
 - 6.3.1. At the initial meeting, the Exec SLT should establish that:
 - there is genuine cause and sufficient grounds for the concern; and
 - the concern has been appropriately raised via the Whistle-blowing Policy.
 - 6.3.2. The Exec SLT should ask the employee, to put their concern(s) in writing, if s/he has not already done so. If the employee is unable to do this the senior manager will take down a written summary of his/her concern/s and provide him/her with a copy after the meeting. The Exec SLT should make notes of the discussions with the employee. The employee's letter and/or Exec SLT notes should make it clear that the employee is raising the issue via the whistle-blowing procedure and provide:

- the background and history of the concerns; and
- names, dates and places (where possible); and
- the reasons why the employee is particularly concerned about the situation.

6.3.3. The employee should be asked to date and sign their letter and/or the notes of any discussion. The Exec SLT should positively encourage the employee to do this, as a concern expressed anonymously is much less powerful and much more difficult to address, especially if the letter/notes become evidence in other proceedings, e.g., an internal disciplinary hearing.

6.3.4. The Exec SLT should follow the policy as set out above and explain to the employee:

- who he/she will need to speak to in order to determine the next steps (e.g. Executive Headteacher);
- what steps s/he intends to take to address the concern;
- how s/he will communicate with the employee during and at the end of the process. It should be noted that the need for confidentiality may prevent the school giving the employee specific details of any necessary investigation or any necessary disciplinary action taken as a result;
- that the employee will receive a written response within ten working days;
- that their identity will be protected as far as possible, but should the investigation into the concern require the employee to be named as the source of the information, that this will be discussed with the employee before their name is disclosed;
- that the Board of Trustees will do all that it can to protect the employee from discrimination and/or victimisation;
- that the matter will be taken seriously and investigated immediately;
- that if the employee's concern, though raised as a genuine concern, is not confirmed by the investigation, no punitive action will be taken against them;
- if clear evidence is uncovered during the investigation that s/he has made a malicious or vexatious allegation, disciplinary action may be taken against them; and
- the investigation may confirm their allegations to be unfounded in which case the Board of Trustees will deem the matter to be concluded unless new evidence becomes available.

6.4. Stage Two:

6.4.1. Following the initial meeting with the employee, the Exec SLT should consult with the Executive Headteacher or Chair of Trustees to determine whether an investigation is appropriate and, if so, what form it should take. A record should be made of the decisions and/or agreed actions.

6.4.2. It may be necessary, with anonymous allegations, to consider whether it is possible to take any further action. When making this decision, Exec SLT should take the following factors into account:

- the seriousness of the issue(s) raised;
- the credibility of the concern(s); and
- the likelihood of confirming the allegation(s) from attributable sources.

6.4.3. In some cases, it may be possible to resolve the concern(s) simply, by agreed action or an explanation regarding the concern(s), without the need for further investigation. However, depending on the nature of the concern(s) it may be necessary for the concern(s) to:

- be investigated internally;
- be referred to the police;
- be referred to the external auditor;
- form the subject of an independent inquiry.

6.4.4. Executive senior leadership should have a working knowledge and understanding of other school policies and procedures, e.g., grievance, disciplinary, harassment, child protection procedures, to ensure that concerns raised by employees are addressed via the appropriate procedure/process.

6.5. Stage Three:

6.5.1. Within ten working days of a concern being received, the manager receiving the concern (at paragraph 5.1 above) must write to the employee, in a complex case this may be varied:

- acknowledging that the concern has been received;
- indicating how they propose to deal with the matter;
- giving an estimate of how long it will take to provide a final response; and/or
- telling the employee whether any initial enquiries have been made; and
- telling the employee whether further investigations will take place, and if not why not; and/or
- letting the employee know when s/he will receive further details if the situation is not yet resolved

7. Raising Concerns Outside the School

7.1. The aim of this policy is to provide an internal mechanism for reporting, investigation and remedying any wrongdoing in the workplace. In most cases the employee should not find it necessary to alert anyone externally. The law recognises that in some circumstances it may be appropriate for the employee to report his/her concerns to an external body such as a regulator. It will very rarely if ever be appropriate to alert the media. Employees are strongly encouraged to seek advice before reporting a concern to anyone external. If an employee is not satisfied with the Board of Trustees's response, the manager should ensure that s/he is made aware with whom s/he may raise the matter externally:

- ‘Public Concern at Work’

Tel no: 0207 404 6609*;

- Recognised Trade Union;
- Senior LA (Local Authority) Officer;
- External Auditor;
- Relevant professional bodies or regulatory organisations;
- Solicitor.

7.2. The manager should stress to the employee that if s/he chooses to take a concern outside the School, it is the employee's responsibility to ensure that confidential information is not disclosed, i.e. confidential information, in whatever format, is not handed over to a third party.

Public Concern at Work is a registered charity that employees can contact for advice to assist them in raising concerns about poor practice at work. The charity also provides advice to employers as to the possible ways to address these concerns.*

7.3. Concerns about safeguarding practices can be raised externally using the NSPCC whistleblowing helpline. Employees can call 0800 028 0285 or email help@nspcc.org.uk

8. Monitoring and Review

8.1. The Executive Headteacher will be responsible for monitoring the implementation and effectiveness of this policy. The policy will be reviewed by the Board of Trustees as necessary.
